TOTAL HOURS: 45 hours

This course will appear on a Jacksonville Transcript as SPAN 202-301.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Tell detailed accounts that occurred using a variety of complex sentences and times
- Understand the main ideas in complex Spanish debates
- Justify an opinion in informal debates
- Ask for specific information, complain, ask for an explanation
- Give detailed instructions about how to do something

METHODOLOGY

IH Barcelona Spanish courses emphasize what the student can do with the language not simply what the student knows about the language. The syllabus is organized functionally, around objectives that students need to achieve as they adjust to living in the Spanish culture and the grammatical structures students need to achieve these objectives. Each of the four skills (oral expression, written expression, listening comprehension and reading comprehension) is emphasized throughout the course.

Classes use communicative language teaching methodologies similar to those pioneered in contemporary American and British language programs. Each level includes grammatical goals, language functions, and cultural themes. Grammar is always presented in context and with brief, practical explanations. Students focus on real-life application of language through participatory exercises, games, group discussions, and other hands-on activities. Cultural themes are woven throughout the language classes. Students use Spanish language materials developed specifically for use in Spain. Classes are taught entirely in Spanish to maximise exposure to the target language.

FACULTY

IH Barcelona's language classes are taught by professors from the International House Barcelona. They hold advanced degrees in Spanish language, literature or culture. Additionally, each faculty member has completed a graduate level teacher-training course taught by the International House Barcelona Teacher Training department. The faculty participates in ongoing training in new materials and teaching methods. Many of them have presented their work at conferences, contributed to publications, and written materials for contemporary language texts.

EVALUATION

Attendance to classes and field trips is mandatory; poor attendance will affect the final grade of the student as well as the everyday participation grade. The final grade consists:

Attendance & Class participation	20%
Continuous Assessment (Quizzes)	20%
Homework	15%
Midterm exam	15%
Final exam	30%

Class participation: Active class participation includes coming to class prepared, having read the material for that day, answering questions from the professor, asking questions and engaging in group activities. Students are encouraged to express their opinions in class with the professor and the other students.

Exams: The exams consist of five parts: grammar, reading, writing, listening and speaking. The exams will be weighted as follows:

30%	Grammar
10%	Reading
20%	Writing
10%	Listening
30%	Speaking

The final exam is CUMULATIVE and will have the same format as the midterm exam. It will include materials from the entire course. The instructor will place more emphasis on the final exam because it is cumulative. Students' progress will be taken into consideration and will also give a boost to their overall grade.

The guidelines for exams are as follows-

- Any student found cheating will automatically fail this examination. Additional sanctions may be imposed.
- Talking or communicating with other students during the examination is forbidden.
- Desks must be cleared of all books, notes and papers. All unauthorized materials must be put away and remain out of sight throughout the examination.
- All telephones and electronic devices must be turned completely off during the exam.
- Students arriving later than 15 minutes will not be allowed into the classroom to take the examination, subject to the decision of the instructor.
- At the end of the examination students will remain seated until their papers are collected. No one may leave the room until excused.
